John Franklin
Separation Agreements

John will look at the extent to which the court is likely to consider post-nuptial agreements binding and the considerations that arise.

Helen Moizer
When clients receive benefits

Helen will discuss what to look out for and consider for any financial settlements/orders in matrimonial proceedings when clients or the other side are in receipt of benefits.

Franky Payne
'Matrimonialisation' and the FMH – is everything up for grabs?

Francis will consider the concept of matrimonialisation (given assent in Standish v Standish) and how this is being applied.

Amelia King
Family Finances Case Law Update and guidance

Amelia will explore the recent developments in case law and practice. Exploring key issues and changes, bringing you fully up to date.

Claire Webb
Empowering Families, Resolving Disputes: Integrated Mediation with Expert Legal Support

A collaborative approach to family mediation, where mediators, solicitors and barristers work together to provide both legal expertise and conflict resolution, ensuring parties explore NCDR fully with an aim to help families reach a fair and lasting solution.
