Sara Chalk

The Interplay of Section 37 Reports and ICO's in private law

Sara will take an in-depth look at Section 37 reports including the process and impact of these and the interplay for ICO's being made within private law and the consequences of the same.

Asher Shane

Relocation within the UK

Asher will look at the legal aspects of internal relocation cases within the UK and in particular, the evidential requirements to be included in applications/witness statements

Elicia Davis

The interplay between Family Law Injunctions and private children proceedings

Elicia will discuss the interplay between Family Law Act injunctions and private children proceedings and the impact injunctions can have on private children proceedings.

Thomas Wheddon

Private Law Children Case Law Update & guidance

Thomas will explore the recent developments in case law and practice. Placing an emphasis on practical tips, Thomas will explore key issues and changes, bringing you fully up to date.

Helen Moizer

Contempt of Court: FPR & Principles

Helen will discuss what needs to go in the applications under Part 37 Family Procedure Rules and what legal principles the court will look at.

Claire Webb

Empowering Families, Resolving Disputes: Integrated Mediation with Expert Legal Support

A collaborative approach to family mediation, where mediators, solicitors and barristers work together to provide both legal expertise and conflict resolution, ensuring parties explore NCDR fully with an aim to help families reach a fair and lasting solution.
